

Teachers Pay Teachers:

Teachers Pay Teachers is a virtual marketplace for different types of educational resources. Through this resource you may filter content by grade year, search for specific topics, or sort by digital activities. On this website teachers can find free or paid items to use in the classroom that was created by other educators. The content includes study packets, worksheets, lesson plans, assessments, projects, activities, and so much more.

Khan Academy:

Is a nonprofit that provides education to all, despite physical location. Khan Academy covers a wide array of subjects from grammar to chemistry. Khan Academy also hosts a course for SAT practice to prep students for the standardized test. For their lessons Khan Academy uses a mixture of videos, quizzes, and readings to teach the learner and gauge how well they have comprehended the subject throughout the lesson.

IXL:

IXL is a popular subscription based learning service for K-12 education. There is content for many subjects including: Language Arts, Sciences, Social Studies, and their most popular math. Each grade/subject includes topics and subsequent lessons for students to complete. IXL provides personalized recommendations and personalizes each individual lesson based on the students progress as they continue through the lesson.

Geogebra:

Geogebra is a free virtual math tool for geometry, 3D shapes. graphing, etc. Geogebra is a host website for many different math tools that can enhance your teachings or improve the understanding of your students.

XtraMath:

XtraMath is a free program to help children learn basic arithmetic. It helps students master addition, subtraction, multiplication, and division facts through a repetitive daily process. Teachers and Parents can even receive a detailed weekly report on the child's progress