Dear Duane:

Congratulations on being awarded the "Outstanding Citizen Award" from the Mile High Sertoma Club. This is another tribute to your outstanding leadership and service to this Chamber and the community, especially in the areas of small business and free enterprise.

We greatly appreciate the important place Duane Pearsall occupies in the life, growth and activities of the Denver region.

We wish you continued success.

Sincerely yours,

Rex Jennings

Dear Duane,

I always feel good when I read that a deserving friend of mine is recognized for his contributions to the betterment of his fellowman and of America itself. The members of Mile-Hi Sextoma know what they're doing!

You're a champion of the small businessman and I hope you never stop being an important and dynamic leader for them.

Congratulations!

Jack

Dear Duane:

My compliments on the award you recently received from Mile-Hi Sertoma.

The effort to improve conditions for small business people relative to federal controls is a most worthy undertaking.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Ed Scott

Dear Duane,

Congratulations on having received the Outstanding Citizen Award for your efforts to help small businessmen and to educate young people on the free enterprise system, as reported in the Denver Post recently.

I am certainly impressed with the many things you do, and I am especially grateful, as are all of us in business, for the efforts you make to improve the understanding of the free enterprise system.

With warm regards,

Peter A. Firmin
